

Thammasat University Notification
on
Measures and Recommendations on the Prevention and Control of Coronavirus
(COVID-19) (NO. 23)

Pursuant to Thammasat University Notification on Measures and Recommendations on the Prevention and Control of Coronavirus (COVID-19) No.22, upon monitoring the current situation of the spread, and following the announcement of the Center for COVID-19 Situation Administration (CCSA), it appears that the number of newly infected cases have continued to increase and spread across the country while a growing cluster of cases has been detected in several provinces. With concern for the health, and for the purpose of prevention and risk reduction of infection among university personnel and students having to travel, to work, or to participate in a variety of activities,

To respond to these incidents, Thammasat University hereby issues the following measures:

1. Extending the work-from-home policy to 16 May 2021 in compliance with Thammasat University Notification on Measures and Recommendations on the Prevention and Control of Coronavirus (COVID-19) No 22, Item 1.
2. Classes, teaching, examinations, meetings, seminars and activities will be conducted online. If the online format is not feasible, the responsible heads shall exercise their discretion as deemed appropriate while strictly complying with public health and hygiene measures. Such actions must be reported to the university for acknowledgement until further notice.
3. All academic and supportive staff and students shall strictly follow and comply with the measures issued by the Thai government as well as the local authorities.

Effective immediately

Issued on 29 April, 2021
