

Thammasat University Notification
on Guidelines for the Extension of the Length of Study for Thammasat University Students affected by the COVID-19 Pandemic, B.E. 2564 (NO. 2)

With reference to permission granted by the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation for Thai Higher Education Institutions to consider an extension of the length of study, as stipulated in the standards criteria of higher education curriculums at all levels, for students affected by the COVID-19 pandemic who have fulfilled the required study period in Academic Year 2020, and following the Thammasat University Council's meeting No 8/2021, held on 19 July 2021, which decided to further extend the length of study for such students for one Academic Year,

Thammasat University hereby issues the following measures:

1. Definition: "Thammasat University students who have been granted an extension of the length of study" refers to those students who have fulfilled the required length of study as determined by the program criteria but are unable to graduate due to the fact that they have not satisfied all graduation requirements set forth by the program. This does not apply to students who were dismissed as a result of poor academic performance as stipulated by Thammasat University Academic Regulations.
2. Students who have fulfilled the required length of study in Academic Year 2020 will be granted permission to further extend their length of study for one Academic Year as detailed in the below table:

Fulfillment of required length of study	Extended length of study to:
1. Program with two-semester system
1.1 Semester 1/2020	Semester 1/2021
1.2 Summer/ 2020	Summer/2021
2. Program with tri-semester system
2.1 Semester 1/2020	Semester 1/2021
2.2 Semester 2/2020	Semester 2/2021
2.3 Semester 3/2020	Semester 3/2021

3. Students who were previously granted permission to further extend the length of study for one semester, as set forth in the Announcement of Thammasat University regarding academic accommodation for students affected by COVID-19, dated 22 July 2020, granting them an extension of their length of study until Summer/2020, will be entitled to the same benefit as specified in this announcement.
4. Relevant faculties and departments shall finalize a list of students who have fulfilled the required length of study for Academic Year 2020 and communicate this information to the Office of the Registrar for further action.
