

Thammasat University Notification
on
Measures and Recommendations on the Prevention and Control of Coronavirus 19
(COVID-19) (No. 13)

Pursuant to Thammasat University Notification on Measures and Recommendations on the Prevention and Control of Coronavirus 19 (COVID-19) (No. 12), whereby the situation of infection within the country has improved in progression, on 12 June 2020, the government has henceforth relaxed the enforcement of certain measures on the prevention of coronavirus 19 (COVID-19) infection in Phase 4. No. 1 of the above regulations prescribes the lifting of nationwide curfew from 23.00 hrs. of 14 June 2020, while No. 2 prescribes the easing of restrictions on use of educational institution buildings and grounds. With concern for the health of staff and students required to travel to university for work or educational activities, in order to prevent the recurrence of severe infection and to prepare for the opening of academic year 2020, Thammasat University hereby issues the following measures.

1. Thammasat University Ta Prachan, Rangsit, Lampang, and Pattaya shall resume normal operation from 15 June 2020 onwards. To prevent infection from the aforementioned virus, the office head or responsible Vice Rector shall exercise his discretion in implementing work from home measures and time-lapse working hours at office with appropriate number of officers in rotation, taking into account of efficiency and maintaining performance.
2. The use of university premises for work, meetings, classes, exams, selection exams, training, activities or other similar exercises shall be under discretion of office head or the responsible Vice Rector to determine the class format, venue and number of personnel and officers involved, in compliance with the guidelines set by the government, the Ministry of Education, Science, Research and Innovation, and Thammasat University, in strict compliance with public health and hygiene measures.

In addition, classes shall be conducted online for the summer session of Academic Year 2019, whereas exams shall be administered in the classroom.

Effective from 15 June, 2020 onwards.

Given on June 14, 2020

(Associate Professor Gasinee Witoonchart)
Rector
