Global Leadership Conference 2025

In collaboration of Thammasat Business School, Southampton Business School, and Krungsri Bank, the Global Leadership Conference 2025 held on January 20-21, 2025 at the Krungsri Head Office. The conference brought together distinguished leaders, academics, and professionals to explore the theme of "Digitalization and Sustainability."

Opening remarks were delivered by the Dr. Somchai Supattarakul, Dean of Thammasat Business School and Dr. Laura Costanzo, Dean, Southampton Business School. It was honored to welcome Mr. Dan Pathomvanich, CEO of NR Instant Produce PLC (NRF), as an inspiring keynote speaker.

The first day concluded with a networking cocktail at Krungsri Bank's Riverside Building, where Mr. Takashi Wakushima, Head of Corporate Planning Division, delivered a welcoming address to attendees.

On the second day, participants engaged in a practical workshop on Systems Thinking and Leadership Development, designed to equip leaders with tools to address complex challenges and drive sustainable growth.

The two-day conference welcomed over 120 participants with fostering collaboration and sparking fresh ideas for a sustainable and digital future.
